

Participation Agreement

I, _____, in consideration of the personal satisfaction received by myself from the selection and use of photographs of myself, recordings of my voice, and my name, the receipt and sufficiency of said personal satisfaction being hereby acknowledged, and in further consideration of the fact that Washington and Lee University has absorbed all costs of the same, hereby give my permission to Washington and Lee University, its agents, successors, assignees, clients and purchasers of its services and/or products to use my image regardless of what type of medium is used to transmit said image such as film, tape, or television or whether it be a still photograph, recordings of my voice regardless of what type of medium is used to transmit said recordings, and my name, in any instructional, commercial, or non-commercial manner whatsoever. Further, I hereby specifically release Washington and Lee University, its agents, successors, assignees, clients and purchasers of its services and/or products from any claim of liability or damage or compensation of any type for the use of said images, photographs, recordings, and names as aforesaid.

Moreover, I have attended or will view a recording of the mandatory Moot Court Initial Interest Meeting, which took place Tuesday, August 25, 2009. I acknowledge that I have read, understand and promise to follow the Moot Court Executive Board's Professionalism Policy and Grievance Procedure. In addition, I promise to read, understand and follow any competition rules for any competition in which I choose to participate.

I understand that if I drop out of any competition after I sign up—without a dispensation from the Moot Court Executive Board—I will be barred from participating in any other Moot Court competitions for the rest of the 2009-2010 academic year.
