UNIVERSITY AND COMMUNITY SERVICE:

Past lecturer on Corporations for Virginia bar review.

I have frequently served as a member of numerous committees, including, Law School Appointments Committee, Frances Lewis Law Center Committee, Dean Search Committees, Educational Planning and Curriculum Committee, Library Committee, tenure committees, Dean's Advisory Group, and the support and evaluation committee of untenured faculty members. I have also served on the President's Advisory Committee and Consultative Committee, and I served on the University's Strategic Planning and Consolidation Committee. I also served as the first Law School representative at the Board of Trustee meetings and initiated the Leaders in Law and Commerce Program.

I have organized and participated in major corporate law academic conferences at Washington and Lee. I have also organized and participated in conferences for members of the practicing bar at W&L.

In the Lexington community, for many years I coached baseball and basketball for the Rockbridge Area Recreation Organization, and served as a lay leader in my church.

I regularly host a Bible study for W&L Law students.
