Attendance: Orientation events prior to Tuesday, August 18, are optional WITH THE EXCEPTION of the August 17th meeting with Linda Johnson. All Orientation events August 18 through August 20 are mandatory for visiting or exchange students.

Dress Code: Except for Wednesday’s Honor Orientation, there is no dress code for Orientation. There will, however, be a number of employers in the building interviewing our second-year students during this time. Your appearance and conduct during Orientation will likely inform their impression of our law school and student body. Some of the Orientation activities will require you to walk to various locations on both sides of campus. Consequently, you are encouraged to wear comfortable footwear. Please note, on Tuesday, August 18, your law school student directory picture will be taken during Registration. This picture will be shared with faculty. Please dress professionally for this photo. Business attire is recommended.

Laptops: Laptops are NOT permitted in any of the Orientation sessions. Please do, however, bring your laptop to Registration on Tuesday afternoon, where they will be configured with the law school’s printers and wireless network.

Food: Food will only be served as indicated on the schedule below. Food will NOT be served during any of the break periods. Students are encouraged to bring their own snacks.

Our goal for Orientation is to welcome you to the law school and prepare you for the start of your first year. We are excited to have you join us in Lexington!
